General Meeting February 18, 2016

Attendance: Chair Jen D'Aubin, Gerry Bezanson, Gary Olsvik, Paul Blake, Anne Crossman
Guest Nancy Price

Meeting called to order at 8:00 am by Chair Jen, with a welcome to all.

Minutes from previous meeting were read, motion by Anne to accept minutes as presented, 2nd by Paul, m/c.

Nancy Price spoke on the revitalization of the downtown core with the transitional money that may be available. She suggested forming a group to come up with ideas on envisioning the big picture, creating a presentation for the County CAO and then on to county council to obtain funds.

Jennifer will facilitate a brainstorming meeting with merchants, invitations will be hand delivered to all merchants asking for their input on improving the look of Queen St. This will take place on March 4, 2016 at 6:30 pm at the Pullman Room.

Nancy also requested a letter of support from the BACC for the vision of the playground facilities at the new school. She advised a 3D diorama will be available soon to view. Jennifer will forward a letter of support.

Business Arising;

Chase the Ace is still being investigated. Andy and Steve met with the RCL Br. 33 and they will not be pursuing this venture so the Ciderfest committee will proceed and will keep BACC informed.

Friends of the Library- motion by Gary to support the Library to claim the space, previously occupied by The Eggplant Café, for their future goals. 2nd by Anne, m/c,

No committee reports at this time.

Gary moved for adjournment at 8:50 am.

Next meeting March 17, 2016 at the Town Hall.
