Moonlight Madness – Decorations looked great

- The lights were not done, Gary will ensure bigger and better next year.
- Vacant lot on corner looked nice and cost $350 for insurance. Bank of Nova Scotia required we have insurance they would not be held responsible if something happened.
- The carollers from the Amazing Baptist Church went well.
- The decorating sub committee failed to meet about how things should change.
- Gary will head up decorating committee and they will have a meeting in January to set a new vision for Moonlight Madness. Jennifer said she would join this team.

AGM Meeting – John will be seeing Kirk to see if he will do the nominating committee. The annual general meeting has been set for January 4th, 2019 at 6:30pm at The Pub. Wine and Cheese social to follow meeting.

Meeting Next Month – January 5th, 2019 at Temple on Queen – 6:00pm

This is a vision meeting, (Brain storming) for what we see the improvements will be when they redo Queen Street. Jennifer agreed to facilitate the meeting.

-Gary will draft up letter and take to all the Business owners and appropriate people to try and get input from everyone. Letter will have to be done up by December 17th to get it out and around before the meeting. Jennifer agreed to help Gary with the drafting of the letter and passing it out.

- John Burriss will contact appropriate people from the county and get their information and invite them to the meeting.

Ann Crossman brought forward that we should be doing a membership drive.

Sub Group will meet January 7th at 10:00pm at Temple on Queen to compile information from the vision meeting for Queen street to do proposal to send to County. Jennifer, Anne, Caroline and Nancy all agreed to do this.

Chimney at School - no ruling on the school

Anne – proposed that the Chamber should put out an announcement about the new school. Jennifer will get Andy to do up a statement to put out.

Ann called for meeting to adjourn.
