

BACC Meeting Minutes
November 5, 2020
Temple on Queen
8 am

Attendance – Jane Bezanson, Jennifer D’Aubin, Gary Olsvik, Anne Crossman, Caroline Perriman, Nancy Price, Mike Taylor, Nicole Hackenschmidt, Steve Clayton

Anne Crossman –

- The Annapolis Valley Register is replacing the Spectator, Monitor, Register. The editor is Ashley Thompson.
- Anne has been asked to be a columnist.

Nancy Price – Revitalization Group

- They have started Christmas Decorating.
- Bridgetown O2 class looking for project. They have their own money and are creating something.
- This will be approved by the Revitalization group.
- The Revitalization group is requesting money for such things as batteries, lights.

Anne motioned to give $500 to the Revitalization Group for things they require.

Steve seconded the motion

Motion carried

- Need pine and spruce brush. Jen to put on Community Forum for request of brush.
- They have $5000 to use for the Walking Path.
- The walking route has been mapped out
- Benches and signage need to be put up
- They took Deb Ryan from the County on the walk to show what needs to be fixed along the route.
- Need to get Councillors to take the walk so they can see what needs to be fixed.
- Jen suggested that 2 people meet with our 2 councillors and take them on the walk. Nancy will set this up.
- Parking lot, just waiting for contractor to move forward. It is too late to lay sod and plant tree.

Caroline Perriman–

- VIC building needs painting badly.
- Holly bush needs to be trimmed
- Mural needs to be touched up.
- This will all have to wait until spring.
- Caroline will price out and bring to council in the spring.

Jennifer D'Aubin –

- Talked about Facebook group, Friends of Gordonstoun. Almost 500 members from all areas of Nova Scotia.
- Meeting with Ed Farren on November 19th
- Tickets free but limited due to COVID
- Questions submitted before hand
- Will be posting in the Reader.

AGM –

- we did not have one due to COVID
- Discussed having one as a regular meeting.
- Anne to work on AGM and path forward.

Festival of Lights –

- Cannot be done as we did last year.
- Suggested that Chamber offers a larger prize to be given after a longer period of time. Ballots given out in town stores.
- County still putting up tree but not sure on children decorating.
- Talked about a different way of doing Santa Claus. Maybe a virtual Santa Tour.

House Decorating Contest-

- Nicole Hackenschmidt agreed to take this on
- New rule that you cannot win two years in a row
- In memory of Nancy Godfrey.

Steve Clayton –

- Arena is open and working under the rules and regulations of the health department.

Next Meeting

Thursday November 19th

Temple on Queen

8.00 am